AnnMarie Wolpe

We would like to express our thanks to the Executive Committee, which meets four times a year, and which engages regularly with the staff of the Trust, providing guidance, support and ideas, as well as access to networks and resources. During the period under review, Dr Eddy Maloka left the Executive Committee.

Donors

As always, we are very grateful to our donors for their financial support and partnership. In addition to the financial support from the Atlantic Philanthropies and the Ford Foundation, the Trust secured funding from the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation and the Open Society Foundation for South Africa.

Staff

In April 2005 we welcomed the new National Co-ordinator, Tracy Bailey. Tracy has a Masters degree in Sociology, and has worked as a researcher, writer, editor and trainer in a variety of contexts. Our thanks to Stuart Rothglessler who worked as a part-time Administrator for five months, and to Michelle Campbell who filled the position of Administrative Assistant for the remainder of the year. In February 2006 we welcomed Heidi Michels as the Trust's permanent Administrative & Project Assistant.

Partners

Lastly, the Trust would like to extend its thanks to its formal partners around the country, who assist the Trust in extending its dialogue activities to other regions, and who bring ideas and resources to bear on the work of the Trust. Our Durban partners are the Centre for Civil Society at the University of KwaZulu-Natal. In Johannesburg, the partnership is between the Edge Institute in Braamfontein, and the Sociology of Work Unit at the University of the Witwatersrand. As of February 2006, the Trust brought new partners on board in the Eastern Cape. This partnership is a three-way grouping between the Eastern Cape Socio-Economic Consultative Council, the Faculty of Humanities at Rhodes University, and the Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities at the University of Fort Hare.
